INFORMATION LITERACY IN THE INCLUSIVE SOCIETY

European Conference on Information Literacy (ECIL)

www.ecil2016.ilconf.org

October 10-13, 2016, Prague, Czech Republic

Co-organized by the Department of Information Management of Hacettepe University, Department of Information and Communication Sciences of Zagreb University and Association of Libraries of Czech Universities – ALCU, European Conference on Information Literacy (or ECIL) will take place in Prague, Czech Republic, from 10-13 October 2016.

ECIL is an international conference under the patronage of UNESCO and IFLA. Paul G. Zurkowski is the Honorary Chair of the Conference. Conference committees include over hundred distinguished experts from over sixty countries. The language of the Conference is English.

Keynote Speaker

The keynote speaker for ECIL 2016 is Tara Brabazon. Tara is the Dean of Graduate Research and the Professor of Cultural Studies at Flinders University in Adelaide, Australia. She is the author of 17 books and over 200 refereed articles and book chapters. She is also a columnist with the Times Higher Education. Her best known books include Digital Dieting: From Information Obesity to Digital Fitness (2013), Unique Urbanity (2014), Enabling Universities (2015) and Play: a theory for learning and change (2015).

Aim & Scope

Information Literacy in the Inclusive Society being the main theme, ECIL aims to bring together researchers, information professionals, media specialists, educators, policy makers, employers and all other related parties from around the world to exchange knowledge and experience and discuss current issues, recent developments, challenges, theories, and good practices.

An exciting mixture of keynote and invited speakers will take part in the program in order to explore this multidisciplinary theme from different points of view. The active elements of the program will be emphasized, including discussions and hands-on workshops.
